Creasy Is Speaker At Annual WNTC Banquet

The annual WNTC banquet will be held at the Town House Restaurant Wednesday evening, May 2, at 6:30 p. m. Approximately 35 members of the present and past radio staff are expected to attend. A roast beef dinner will be served.

The past board members of radio station WNTC will be invited to the banquet at the expense of the station.

Mr. William Creasy of St. Lawrence University will be guest speaker. His topic is entitled "Campus Radio Stations." Also included in his speech will be information concerning the "North Country College Network," which will be a joint operation of the two stations, with each station carrying some programs from the other station. One of the programs WNTC will carry will be "Sunday," a program of variety music and news. Hosts will be Ken Maylath and Ted Brown. In addition, the "North Country College Network" will feature frequent world news and sports casts.

At the present, the total air time per week of WNTC is 44 hours and 30 minutes. The network will be in operation carrying programs between the two stations 11 hours and 20 minutes a week, and will begin operation Sunday night, April 29.
